3 CONTINENT MASTER OF GLOBAL MANAGEMENT PROGRAM (3CMGM)

- It is a unique twelve-month full time program across 3 continents for recent university graduates.
- The program consists of coursework, international business projects, and site visits in three countries
- Each school will provide the students a unique view of its region for four months.

3CMGM is a collaboration between:

Antwerp Management School: Belgium (Late August -December 2011)

Discover the cultural diversity of the European Union at the Antwerp Management School located in the historical center of the city of Antwerp. Antwerp has been outward looking for centuries. Paris, London, Cologne, Frankfurt and Amsterdam are within a 200 mile radius. Numerous foreign companies active in Antwerp make the city feel almost like a scale model of the world economy.

Xavier Institute of Management-Bhubaneswar, India (January-April , 2012)

Explore the emerging economies of Asia from this ultra-modern 20 acre campus in the Institutional Area of Bhubaneswar surrounded by local and multi-national corporations such as Satyam Computers, Infosys, STPI, Nalco, and others. On campus you will find classroom facilities, student dormitories, a recreation club, a management development center, sports club, gym, and a multi-purpose auditorium.

Fordham University's Graduate School of Business Administration, NY, NY (May-August 2012)

You will conclude your program in New York City, the global center of finance, entertainment, media and communication technology. Fordham's GBA campus is conveniently located in the heart of the city near the theatre district, Lincoln Center Performing Arts and steps away from Central Park. Wall Street, the Financial District, and midtown are all easily accessible.
