

PwC's 2014 Explore Program

PwC's one day Explore Program is an outstanding opportunity for talented underrepresented minority underclassmen to learn more about the accounting profession and to discover their own career goals and aspirations. The program is aimed at developing teamwork, strategic thinking, creativity, problem solving, and leadership skills in an interactive manner.

To be eligible for the Explore program, students must be at the Freshman or Sophomore levels from a traditionally underrepresented racial or ethnic group within the professional services industry (African American Black, Hispanic, American Indian or Pacific Islander ONLY) with a suggested GPA of 3.2 or higher.

We are seeking students who have declared or are considering declaring business or accounting-related majors, or those looking for further information about careers in business and accounting. All students who have an interest in learning more about the dynamic world of professional services and careers in public accounting are encouraged to apply.

Visit www.pwc.com/explore for more information and to apply. Application deadline is Thursday, February 6th, 2014.

To apply, please visit www.pwc.com/explore and click "Register" and then "Register now" towards the middle of the page. A new window will open. Please highlight "Explore Program" in the "Program Name" box. Do not select a school name or a conference name. Leave those as is. Click "Search". On the next page, select "New York City 2014 Explore Program". You will then proceed with filling out the application as directed.

The New York City Explore program will take place on Monday, February 17, 2014.

Contact Jessica Franco at jessica.a.franco@us.pwc.com with questions.