Deloitte National Leadership Conference and the Local Mentor Program

The Deloitte National Leadership Conference and the Local Mentor Program are multi-day events for students who have demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities and a keen interest in business/professional services. Students from several colleges and universities will be involved in workshops and activities geared towards bringing out their leadership, team-building, interpersonal and negotiation skills and potential. In addition, students will have numerous opportunities to network and interact with Deloitte professionals of all levels. We can guarantee that our conference will be one of the most exciting and rewarding learning experiences you will ever encounter outside of the classroom!
