

Fordham University, Gabelli School of Business

Finance Scholars Program Application Form

Candidate Information

Name		SID#
Email Address		Cell Phone
Mailing Address
Class Level (as of current semester)		SAT / ACT Score
Major / Minor		G.P.A.

Application Questions

Please indicate that you are aware that you are applying for Fall 2015. Please indicate that you are aware that you are committing to attend all events.
Check the box for Fall 2015 application: <input type="checkbox"/> Check the box for awareness of commitment: <input type="checkbox"/>
List top two areas within finance that interest you?
1.
2.
Do you participate in any other campus or community activities (i.e. honor societies, academic clubs)? Please circle: YES NO
If yes, please list the organization(s) here:
Are you currently working/interning? Please circle: YES NO
If yes, please provide name of company and position:
In a separate cover letter please respond to the following:
Why are you interested in the two areas of finance you named above? How do you believe your background and experiences will enhance the learning environment? Please briefly discuss how the anticipated rise in interest rates by the Federal Reserve will impact companies, intermediaries, the economy and markets?

Attach to this application:

1. Cover letter
2. Current resume

*Only students with a GPA of 3.3 or higher may apply

The GSB Finance Scholars Program offers Rising Juniors an opportunity to prepare for careers in investment banking, corporate/public finance, research, sales and trading, and alternative investments by leveraging Fordham's access to New York City and Wall Street Professionals, who are also Fordham Alum. A limited number of students will be selected for this program. It includes information sessions by alum and industry-specific career development, such as resume review and mock interviews.

- Please deliver entire application package to Lisa Henkoff's mailbox, Hughes Hall, 4th Floor.
- All completed applications are due Tuesday, May 5th by 5:00pm.
- Late applications will not be accepted.