I am thankful for my family and friends, as we have kept each other healthy, safe and sane; for my colleagues and for the Fordham community as a whole, as we have come together to support each other regardless of our roles or departmental affiliation in order to achieve our mission; and for all the frontline workers, who risk their lives to help fight the pandemic and allowed us all to shelter in place.
-Gabriel Mejia

I am thankful for Lucia Hoffman's work with EMBA and Rankings.

Thank you Lucia for all you do!!

I am thankful for being a part of the Gabelli community and the support we have all shown for each other throughout this pandemic.

I look forward to all of us being together again doing the good work that we do!

Happy Thanksgiving!
-Robin Freedman

I am thankful for Marisa Villani.

As a colleague, classmate, role model, and friend, for her leadership and supervision over the past year. She is the glue that binds us all together!

I am thankful for Mario DiFiore because he helps me to take a step back and think about what is important - caring for people and making sure they are OK above all else.

I am grateful for all of God's blessings.

Thanks to Greer Jason-DiBartolo for her leadership and continuing to be a true role model of cura personalis!

I am thankful for close friends and colleagues, a loving family, and a loving God.

-Hanaa Fawzy

I am grateful for Hope Ogletree's dedication to women's empowerment at Fordham - and in the world. Hope, we need more change agents like you to even the playing field. Thank you!

I am thankful for my

for their unwavering attention to and support of the technology needs of the Gabelli School and our colleagues across the University.

I just wanted to share how grateful I am for my terrific colleagues!

-Maricel Piriz

I just wanted to say that I have lots to be grateful & thankful for, but I am most Thankful for my families love. Although my family is very small in size the pouring of love is so big.

To Ellen Herman, Ken Cavanagh and Laura Bassin:

I'm thankful for the caring and tireless guidance you provide to assist the MBA & MS students to reach their individual career goals!!

Gratitude is important because it helps me see the bigger picture. The pandemic has created a new norm with masks, plexiglass and fear. With God everything is possible.

I am grateful to God for his love, miracles, and the blessings he continues to bestow upon me and my family.

-Doreen Fishburne

At Thanksgiving, I am grateful for Brett Cetron.

Brett's behind-the-scenes work contributes to all of our abilities to make the best decisions possible, and he is always looking for more effective ways to support our team. He is never afraid to take on a challenge. He is also a patient and helpful teacher to those working with him.

Joann Meehan - "Spread love everywhere you go. Let no one ever come to you without leaving happier." - Mother Teresa

Thank you for making everyone's life better and making the student experience extremely positive.

I'm deeply grateful for all of my Gabelli School colleagues for supporting me during my first year of fatherhood.

-Mike Benigno

I am thankful for the Hudson River. Even when I am stuck in West Side Highway traffic, the river is a daily reminder of the inherent beauty of our world.

I am thankful for Lisa Green during this holiday season. Lisa is always thinking about others, is incredibly supportive of her team, and is a champion for the needs of our students. Her creativity, openness, and institutional expertise are helpful in every situation we encounter. Her positive outlook and caring approach are a comfort and support to all those lucky enough to work with her.

I am thankful for Rachel Dobkin's work with leading the graduate advisement function!
Thank you Rachel!!

This year I am grateful for the love and support of my family, friends and colleagues. Each and everyone of them have uplifted me during tough times and often, they didn't even know it. I am also grateful for the ability to be able to provide a home and put food on the table when so many are suffering. My grandmother passed away in March after a long battle with Alzheimer's/Dementia and I thank God everyday that we were able to say our last goodbyes and grant her wish of having a Priest pray over her. I am most grateful that my parents are safe and healthy and my heart goes out to anyone that has lost a parent due to COVID-19. This pandemic has humbled me in many ways and I feel extremely blessed and privileged.
